Size and Type of Construction

Two separate two-story additions on the back and side of an existing residence. The first, a family room addition, features a cathedral ceiling, full wall of windows to overlook the landscaped back yard and an integrated TV projection screen and sound system. The second, a dining room addition, also overlooks the back yard and features a coffered “pop-up” ceiling, arches and columns. Also included in the addition are a master bedroom suite and a custom master bath with separate tub and steam showers, all with marble tile.
